ZOEDONE
THE NEW DRINK
A restoring & stimulating but non-alcoholic
BEVERAGE
Letter from Dr Lucas, Bombay, Medical Dept. Author of the Elements of Indian Hygiene etc.
"I am of opinion that your invaluable aerated beverage Zoedone deserves the highest attention at the hands of the Indian public. It is not only a health giving drink but essentially, containing as it does the quadruple phosphates of Iron, Lime, Potash, and Soda, a health restoring drink par excellence, reviving and refreshing the vital powers. It would be a blessing indeed if we could see it introduced into hotels, restaurants, regimental messes and canteens. To weakly females in India it would decidedly tend not only to the amelioration of their own health, but that of their offspring, the future generations of men and women. I need scarcely allude to its indication as a remedial and dietetic agent in cases of malarial cachexy, phithis etc."
Letter from Geo. S. A. Ranking, M.A. M.D., Cantabe Surgeon, Indian Medical Department.
"I am of opinion that in Zoedone is to be found a complete solution of the problem which has long exercised the minds of the Medical profession in India, viz., the discovery of a beverage which shall assuage thirst, restore nervous waste, and while being palatable, be also non-alcoholic. It is my firm conviction that if Zoedone be introduced into India it will meet the requirements of those who wish to restore their nervous system without impairing their liver."

THEATRICAL PRECAUTIONS.

When the Grand Opera of Paris was built and forty millions of francs had been spent on this fine monument, many grudged such an outlay on a building doomed to be burnt to the ground sooner or later. Experience points to the inevitable fate of all theatres: their foundations rise on smoking ruins and half generally meet with a similar end. These thoughts are penned with no idea of frightening the people as to the inevitable fate of their cherished Colon, but ordinary precautions and the more sensitive instincts of self-preservation point to many necessary reforms in our theatrical buildings. The cherished and dirty old Dublin Royal, the Brooklyn and the Nice conflagrations are a melancholy warning.

The burning of a theatre does not matter much, but the burning of individuals should frighten people into obliging the respective authorities to insure easy means of egress from all the theatres. The only theatre in Buenos Ayres affording such an egress is the Variedades, where the rush, following the alarm-cry of fire, would easily bear down the light timber doors. As regards the Opera house, the Colon, the Politeama, the Victoria, and the Alegria theatres, utter destruction of human life is inevitable should a conflagration take place in any of those buildings. All the 'bomberos', policemen and soldiers out in the streets would not save those inside.

It is in view of any such calamity that the Municipality should take the matter in hand. All theatres, churches, colleges and buildings constructed for the purpose of containing large assemblies, should have several large issues, with doors folding outwards. These simple precautions are worth all the firemen in the world; and, verily, what could the cohort of policemen in front of the Colon and the firemen stationed inside do, hemmed in front and on all sides by a mad crowd, frantic in its efforts to get out? The policemen would be unable to get in, and grape-shot would not frighten the people from the doors: the firemen would be useless, as their efforts would be paralyzed by those jammed against them.

In fact should such a conflagration ever occur during a performance, half Buenos Ayres would go into mourning. It is, therefore, a solemn duty of the Municipality to attend to the matter; and to show the improvidence of man and of the very best purposes in a theatre fire panic, we give the following detailed account of the awful catastrophe at the fashionable Nice theatre. Better for the victims to have perished by any other means than by this element, which purified the Roman Emperors' bodies wrapped in sheets of amianth.

The following account of the burning of the Opera-house at Nice has been received from Mr Harris, the British Vice Consul at that place:—

"The subsequent notes are the result of a careful examination of the remains of the Opera House at Nice, as also of information collected by myself from reliable sources.

"The building was erected in 1828, and was not, as is generally supposed, ill-constructed as regards means of exit, situation, or plan. Entirely isolated on three sides, north, west and south, it was only partially joined on the east side to a house containing actors' dressing-rooms, the theatrical library, &c. An exit was provided both east and west for the actors from each side of the stage, leading directly into the street at either side, and most of them thus escaped on the night of the fire, only a few in their fright jumping into the pit from the stage, and a single one, Cattani, the basso, being stifled.

"The entire house was divided into three portions:—

"1. The grand entrance and vestibule, with the main staircase,

"2. The auditorium.

"3. The stage.

"Above the vestibule, and on a level with the floor of the pit and stalls, was the refreshment-room; above this again the 'foyer' or promenade room; and, finally, above this and the stairs a broad asphalted terrace on a level with the floor of the upper gallery, and communicating with it by a large doorway. The whole of this, forming the northern portion of the building, was divided from the auditorium by a solid stone wall from the foundation to the roof. Everything on the northern side of this wall is quite intact, even to a notice prohibiting smoking posted close to the main entrance to the pit, while the latter is merely a mass of blackened ruins, open to the sky. The glass door at the top of the landing is there without a broken pane, and as soon as the occupants of the pit, stalls and first tier of boxes were through this they were safe. With regard to the occupants of the upper tiers, they were also quite safe as soon as they got into the promenade hall on the second floor, for thence a separate broad staircase, placed in the north eastern angle of the building, leads down into the vestibule below, whence the exit is sufficiently wide, although the drum inside this main entrance might easily be improved, and its doors should open outwards, not inwards.

"With regard to the upper gallery, where almost all the victims of this fearful calamity were collected, a separate and sufficiently wide staircase leads up to it from the side street to the west; the last flight, however, composed of 20 steps, not 15, as most of the accounts stated, is tortuous and steep. It was here that the wretched victims fell in the sudden panic and darkness, and were piled up and stifled in the thick smoke before, happily, the flames got at them.

"Yet, in spite of the defective nature of this flight of stairs, all would most probably have been saved had the door above mentioned leading from the gallery on to the asphalted terrace been opened in time. This might the more easily have been done as full five minutes before the alarm of fire was given the fire had commenced behind the curtain. Had those previous five minutes been utilized, not a soul need have been lost.

"A controversy is going on as to whether there was or was not an explosion of gas. That the pipes were leaky, and the strong smell of gas had been often complained of, there is no doubt. Those, however, who will not admit the explosion must then account for the sudden turning off of the gas, leaving the whole building in complete darkness, until after some minutes the fire itself burst forth and lighted up the awful scene."

ASSISTED IMMIGRATION

"Assis the immigrant and you assists the country."

This motto of ours ought to be inscribed over the doors of Congress, since it is the soundest of all political doctrines in a country such as this.

Within the last few days a Bill has been presented to Congress authorizing the Government to expend $1·500,000 in paying the passages of immigrants from Europe to this country, whose families are already established here and who apply to the immigration office to bring out their relatives from Europe.

We can conceive no safer, better, or sounder plan than this to increase immigration, and read with much impatience the opposition made to the scheme by colleagues who, generally speaking, take right views on all purely industrial subjects.

The subjoined letter written by a German resident and director of many colonies in Santa Fe, may be accepted as a more orthodox view on this all important topic, than the inky remarks of editors too small for this great country. The sheep-farmer on our plains, or the colonist in Santa Fe who applies to Government to advance the passage money for his relatives in Europe to come to the Plate has a right to be heard; his petition is a sacred claim on the very prosperity of which he himself is one of the chief agents, and we hope to see Congress pass this law, so equitable to the claims of honest industry, and so manifestly beneficial to the producing interests of the Plate. The following is Mr Lehmann's letter—

To the Editor of the Libertad.

"My dear Sir,

"I saw in your edition of yesterday an article criticising the project laid before Congress by Deputies Zavalla and Larguia, for granting Assisted Passages to immigrants. As I consider said criticism erroneous, and, on the other hand, assisting what I consider the best means to foster spontaneous immigration, I send you this letter, hoping you will give the subject mature consideration and modify your opinion of the project in question.

"A residence of 16 years in Santa Fe, and an experience of as many more in colonization, justify me in taking up this matter. Experience has proved that the first attempts at colonization in the Republic cost the National Treasury large sums at the commencement, amongst them being the Esperanza Colony, the foundation stone of the vast colonization system, which is now giving such great results in Santa Fe, and will give still greater. There is, therefore, no reason whatever to regret the amounts spent by the nation,

Can be used with COLD WATER. Sole Agents MOORE & TUDOR. Maypu 95 and 127. Beware of imitations and falsification large as they appear, when they have founded a nucleus for applying the regenerating power of Agriculture. Now that the tree is planted, and that there seems no longer any necessity for the Government to expend large sums, we must think over the best means to foster its growth by private enterprise.

"One of them is, indubitably, Assisted Passages to emigrants summoned by their friends already settled here, who will not only guarantee repayment of the passage money, but give the new comers a start in life. There are in Europe many poor but laborious and moral families ready to come here if they only had the means. A large number of the present Santa Fe colonists belonged to that class of spontaneous immigrants, their relatives already here having paid their passage out. Although the colonists always succeed in the long run, they are not always able to advance money in this way, while they can easily enough become good security for it.

"These are the cases in which the Government is bound to lend its aid, whenever the immigrants can get their friends here to guarantee the repayment of the money and that they will establish the new comers on a farm. This class of immigrants has the great advantage of having a start secured for them on their arrival, instead of being left to wander about the streets, to the great discredit of the country; while, having relatives engaged in farming here, they can learn from them the system of work, as they generally commence on halves with those who bring them out. This is irrespective of the presumption that they are known to their relatives and guarantors here to have learned habits of industry and morality at home.

"This system of fomenting Immigration was tried during Dr. Avellaneda's administration, while Dr. Iridondo was Minister of the Interior: its results in Santa Fe were splendid, and, I am convinced, they will always be so wherever there is the nucleus of a colony already formed. Doubtless, many abuses of this Government aid were committed, but this is no reason for rejecting the system, but rather one for so framing the Bill that they cannot be repeated. Every one of the colonists who got assisted passages have repaid the money, or their friends have done so for them.

"Allow me to draw your attention to the fact that the Bill before Congress provides that it is the colonists already established here who must ask for the advance, and these new comers commence their apprenticeship and to earn money at the same time, an advantage no manager of a private colony could offer, as the colonist would, in the latter case, be set down in a new colony and lose at least two years before he was established and had reaped his first crop. The expenses of his support, &c., mounting up, and perhaps finally overwhelming and disheartening him.

"It must also be borne in mind that a colonist brought out by his relatives here when he is able to start for himself, can move to a new colony (as near as possible) between sowing and harvest time, without neglecting his duty to his protector. This is the kind of man for new colonies, as he has savings accruing from the day of his arrival, a knowledge of his work, and can start for himself at a very low outlay, getting his crops in a few months, all advantages which he would not have under other circumstances.

"The immigrant who has an assisted passage contracts only one obligation—to repay it—and can begin work where and when he likes. The Bill does not aim at official immigration, but to foment a spontaneous, select, and useful flow of new hands. To come up to the United States, this Republic will have to subsidize steamers and oblige them to bring emigrants here at the same fare as that from Europe to New York, but this system would not give as good results as the proposed Bill,

"Truly yours,

"Guillermo Lehmann.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The weather yesterday was enough to put Mark Tapley himself, and Dr Pangloss to boot, in the dismals. No boots could keep out the wet and mud, and there was not a gleam of sunshine from morn till night. This 'soft' weather is, however, very good for the camp, and consequently for the whole country.

The Iberia brings news from the Straits that no more of the corpses or debris of the Doterel have been found. The boilers are supposed to have exploded, not the magazine. In Chile public opinion is strongly in favour of making peace with Bolivia, and, probably, Nature and the American Minister will manage the business, if invited to do so. Blessed are the peace-makers.

Now that the Chilian Question is as good as settled people are beginning to fear that the supply of 'sensation' will soon be exhausted and the Plate will have to settle down to a hum-drum existence it is not accustomed to. There is, however, a shot in the locker yet, in B. Oriental, where something in the volcanic line may soon be expected. President Vidal, in his Message to the Chambers on the Santos-Fein affair, accuses the Judges of the Supreme Court of 'obfustification' when dealing with the matter, and also gives it hard to the opposition papers. The papers are muzzled and cannot reply, but the obfusticated Judges will certainly have something to say in their own defence. No man except Colonel Latorre knows what to-morrow may bring forth for poor B. O.

The superb blood cattle to be sold to-day, by Messrs. Baltar and Quesada, are imported by Mr. C. Getting, and are from the stud-farms of the Prince of Wales and the Dukes of Devonshire and Manchester. Such a chance for breeders.

The Indian invasion at Puan was rather a serious affair. The savages drove off a lot of cattle and made some captives. There were several 'gauchos malos' with them. They came from the direction of Curamalan and drove back the garrison of Puan. The War Minister despatched a regiment of the Line yesterday in an express train to Azul, to pursue the Indians, and Sr Dantas, Chief of the camp police, accompanied them. This Indian foray reads unpleasantly like old times before Adolfo Alsina took the aborigines in hand, but there can be no doubt as to the savages being overtaken and the captives and cattle saved.

The school lately opened under the spiritual direction of the Passionist Fathers at No. 27 Calle Alsina has removed to 1446 Rivadavia, for better accommodation. It is called Holy Cross College, and we wish it every success.

The medical students gave a grand ovation to Dr Rawson on Tuesday, at the Hotel Frascati, prior to his departure yesterday for Europe in the Congo. The worthy Doctor received his young friends most affably, made a most graceful speech, and shook hands with them all round when saying farewell.

The Anglo-Argentine Tramway Company has courteously given coaches free, to carry the 'Invalidos' to-night to the Politeama, to witness the performance for their benefit.

The Geographical Society of Bremen is getting up another expedition to the North Pole. What a general favourite that Pole is, whilst its twin brother the South Pole appears to have no friend but Lieut. Bove. Such is life.

The enrolment of the Nat. Guards is now complete and shows a muster roll of 380,000 citizen soldiers. May the Standard's Centenary be celebrated before a single man of them be called on to fire a shot in anger at home or abroad.

A man was ejected forcibly from the San Felipe Theatre at Montevideo the other night for hissing the zarzuela performance. When he was safely landed in the street, the audience called the actors twice before the curtain, to reassure them.

The Europa sailed from Genoa on 3rd inst, with 600 emigrants for the Plate, the largest batch announced for some time.

The Continental Exhibition Commissioners announce that the Nat. Government has lent them that woolly locality the Plaza Once, where they will hold their long-promised Show on the 15th Feb. next, Weather, Wives or anybody else to the contrary notwithstanding. The Commissioners will certainly hit it off this time.

The retiring Bolivian Minister, Sr Quijarro, paid the members of the National Cabinet a p.p.c. visit yesterday at the Red House.

We erred in stating in a recent issue that Mr Walter S. Keyser, Director of the Continental Telephone Company, had won the lawsuit in which he is engaged with Messrs Newman and Cayol, respecting the concession. The case is not decided yet, and we regret the error.

The proprietors of the Skating Rink have wisely determined to know who all their female patrons are, as of late many people have surmised that they were ignorant on the point. For the future permanent 'entradas' will be issued to the lady patrons of the place. Good.

The New York papers mention a Chippewaw Indian dame who is now living happily with her 24th husband. Death and divorce have helped her considerably in getting through such a marital list, and may probably enable her to do, if not to do for, an even half hundred husbands before she dies. She is not old, but just betwixt and between—fat and forty, but by no means fair.

The National Government postponed the sailing of the steamer Rosetti yesterday, to enable the newly arrived Welsh emigrants to go down in her to Chuput.

The Camp Police statistics announce that the rural guardians of law and order captured, during the first quarter of this year, no fewer than 2753 persons for different offences. This very large figure shows the energy of the Camp Police and would be extremely consoling if there were any reasonable grounds for supposing that the Judges and Justices have not set every man Jack of them at liberty on bail or some other pretext.

Some of our colleagues say that Latorre has passed over to Argentine territory, and also that the captain of the smack that took him across from Guaviyu is known. This news smacks of 'canard.'

Dr Irigoyen, Minister of Foreign Affairs, gives a grand ball to-night as, it is supposed, a demi-semi official celebration of the happy arrangement with our Chilian neighbours. Whenever a Minister of Foreign Affairs gives a dance, it is understood to mean something pleasant in the diplomatic line.

The Libertad says that the Indians who raided at Puan got as far as the Sauce Corte before they turned back. This is rather serious.

A telephone line has been laid between President Roca's new residence in Calle Suipacha and the Government House.

Congress did next to nothing yesterday. Mr Meabe presented a petition begging for a ten years concession to make wax candles. Bah! before half ten years are about the Electric Light will be the epitaph on the tombstone of gas, kerosene, colza, wax candles, and even wooden matches.

Another severe lesson to mothers may be learned from what occurred on Monday at No. 900 Calle Artes, where a negress entered the house and asked the wife of a man living there leave to take her eldest child, a girl of 12, out for an hour, to get her a situation in a family. The mother did not know the negress, and it seems incredible, but it is true, that she gave the required permission, and the girl has not been seen since, in spite of every effort by the police. This child-stealing is terribly on the increase in the city, and mothers and nurses can not be too careful.

It is said that the ex-Dictator of Peru, Pierola, is on his way to Buenos Aires, via Bolivia.

In consequence of the bad weather the Barracas Institute entertainment announced for this evening has been postponed till this day week.

How fickle is public favour: The Reforma of Mercedes says that the new grave-digger there, who gave such universal satisfaction, has lost his gloomy post (we mourn the circumstance) through cutting up rusty with the Juez de Paz about the burial of a baby. Alas, poor Yorick!

One of our German colleagues says that President Roca destines 8000 sq. leagues of land in Patagonia for German and Swiss settlers. We should be delighted to see all Patagonia covered with such desirable colonists, but we fear there is one, or perhaps a couple of zeros too much in our colleague's figure.

The cheers on the Bolsa when Cedulas touched par at the ring will re-echo in London; the most abused, most heared, most persecuted of all our stocks is at last at par, and yet whilst bonafide buyers cash had to pay par for the stock, such is the ring made to hunt them down, that 190,000 were sold short for the end of the month at 99. People who sell Cedulas or in fact any stock to-day descubierta must have more pluck than wit, and it may prove hard times at the end of the month for many of the bear sales to-day. The market is now so strong that it mocks the power of the speculators. Gold is so completely beyond the control of the bulls that nothing can bolster it up; the Government says gold must go to 25, and the Government holds the power to make its fiat obeyed. The Nacional which is a semi official organ, stated last night that it was authorized to state that the Prov. Government would not allow patacons to rise above 27.50. The notice is significant, but by no means needed. A telegram from the Bank to Baring for half a million sterling would settle the question at the cost of five cable words.

The position of the market is really so clear and so obvious that there is no mistaking it, and we may state that this week the Romero project goes before Congress, and will probably be law before the month expires; the moment this project is law; the bank begins discountang in gold, and brings all its London gold to this market.

Gold opened and shut at 27.20, cash sales 146,800, for the end of the month 550,000, opening at 27.20 and closing at 15. By a typographical mistake this morning, the sales made yesterday for the 15th and attributed to the Government broker read at 27.15, which was not so, no sale yesterday being made at that rate. It was, however, the mistake of a day, the price to-day being 27.15; gold for July dropped to 26.85, and for end of year 25.45. The sales of day topped a million.

Cedulas opened with a sigh and closed with a roar, cash first 99½, but no more to be had at that rate, and buyers had to pay 100. For June 30th 194,600 sold, opening at 98⅞, closing 99, and for December 35,000 at 100.

Nat. Bank Shares following in the wake of Cedulas, 96⅞ cash, 97½ for July; market advancing steadily.

Roads and Bridges 4 prem. which is indeed cheap, Bonos do, and Emp. Popular also advancing closed at 1½ prem.

The whole Bolsa is now into Cedulas, and it is quite clear that they will carry the stock with ease to a handsome premium. Prices for end of month advanced to 99½; over 50,000 bought at that rate.

We must indeed compliment Dr. Llambi Campbell, the talented young President of the Mortgage Bank, on his brilliant success. Notwithstanding the great ease in the money market, if the public had not the very fullest confidence in his able administration of the bank, the stock would not be held so securely by thousands as a permanent investment. The question for the Bolsa is, what shape the demonstration in favor of Dr. Campbell should take? We propose a meat coupé; it would but be a mere trifle for those large holders of this stock who bought at 85 and 90. Certainly some testimonial should be given, and as Dr. Campbell lives in the suburb, and although a lawyer does not yet drive a coach, we hope the high appreciation of his services by the investing public will become the vehicle to bring him into town every morning to his office. In London or Dublin they would probably give him a purse with 500 guineas.

National Bank Shares will soon be at par. Buyers offered par for the stock disponible to September; none sold. At after hours 500 shares for end of month bought at 97½, and 500 for end of July 98⅛. Some of the large holders say that before the end of the month the stock will be at a premium.

Whilst Cedulas and Bank Shares keep rising gold keeps falling, and the gold market ruled so weak at afterhours that parties who offered cash gold at 27.15 could not find a buyer.

The French mail closed with bills over, and drawers were offering to-day 49; no takers. It seems the Government has only drawn for £ 6,000 in all for the mail, passed at 49⅛.

The Horrox with another splendid consignment of live stock to Mr Getting arrived to-day, her mails come up to-night in Silex · she brings dates from Antwerp 1th, and 4th from Rio, leaves on 21st for Antwerp.

The sale of 4 leagues of Rio Negro camp by the shopkeeper in Calle Cangallo who sells the lion and tiger skins, was the talk of Change; he bought the land for 10,000 m/c per league and sold it to-day at 60,000 m/c per league; the profits will doubtless find their way into Cedulas.

Baron Victoria was welcomed on 'Change on his arrival from Rio. Viscount Maua has also arrived at Montevideo from Rio.

The Nat. Government stopped the Rosetti to-day, to take the 70 Welsh colonists in town down to Chuput.

Three or four lots of salted hides in the rivers offering for sale, 50 rls asked; this shows a sharp rise.

Spite of the weather Messrs Baltar and Quesada's was crowded to-day; the horses sold for $24 000 each, the bulls $14,000 each, and the cows $18,000 each; we consider the stock fetched splendid prices.

We regret to say that Mr Litzman met with an accident yesterday in our most slippery streets, he fell on the side walk and broke his arm, but is proceeding well.

Johnson Garrisso & Co, chartered the following ships—

Italian barque Tridici Agosto, to load bones in Boca to Channel f. o. at 25s in fall.

British barque Georgi, to load produce in Montevideo to New York, at reserved rates.

An interesting pamphlet on Ensenada has just been published, and is on sale at Mr Jacobsen, Calle Florida, we recommend it to merchants, it tells all about the capacity of Ensenada as a future port.

If they carry out the new market scheme at the Riachuelo plans of which are now at the Government House, it will shut up both, the Once and Constitution, the plans are on the grandest scale, and Boca property must rise to the skies; we advise all to study the plans, and those who have time to write, to send us their views; the cost of the new market will be only 14 millions.

Mr Rufino P Basabilvaso has purchased two leagues of land, situated 15 leagues from the 9 de Julio, for the sum of $336,000.

Mr Woodgate proposes a railway from Bahia Blanca to Puan, a capital idea, and the very best to save the people down there from future Indian fears.

The British barque George Mills chartered to load 15,000 salted hides, Uruguay, for channel, 27/6, also the Dutch lugger Shalaza to load hay in Rosario for Bahia at 2½.

Property holders in Flores must note that in many cases there is a sudden rise in the values of their quintas by the tax men; the jury sits in Flores Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, at 8 o'clock p.m.

One thousand concessions to Colonists in Santa Fe have been made out and granted since the first of the year; this shows what is going on up there. Baltar and Quesada will sell next month 100 sq. leagues at auction within 10 and 15 leagues of where the new concessions have been granted, such property has a splendid prospect, 5 years hence it will be all Colonies; who doubts this loses.

Italian Bankers in demand, buyers at 25 gold prem.

The news from Europe about produce continues favorable, and salted hides are offering at 50 rls against 45 rls. a week ago, wool and tallow moving off.

The Custom House receipts on 8th instant were 165,000 pats.

Our Boca correspondent gives the following: The Boca to-day presented quite a lively appearance, owing to the stream of carriages arriving with passengers and friends for the Bordeaux mail Congo, which leaves outer roads to-day.

The Calle General Brown quite reminded one of the Hyde Park in the season.

Never before has the Boca received such an ovation.

Indian rubber boots and top-coats are the order of the day in our vicinity.

Foot-passengers have a bad time of it, owing to the disagreeable amount of slush in the streets.

Advices from Tucuman are very favorable. It seems our trade with Bolivia is each day increasing most rapidly; one firm up there writes that it has received from Bolivia 11,800 marks silver, worth 94,400 pats; also 360 zurrones of silver, weighing 720 ar., and there is just as much more on the way down. All this comes over the Central Argentine Railway, and goes to Europe in Lamport & Holt's steamers.

The question between the National Government and the Government of Corrientes will come up at once before Congress, and it seems probable that at last the Misiones question will be settled; all the grants made by the Correntino Government of lands &c, will have to be ratified by Congress before acknowledged by the National Government; they say in political circles that the question will be a most animated one in the Congress, as it appears the Correntino Government has made a free grant of 100 leagues to one well known Correntino family. The concessions made by the Correntino Government to other parties who propose to bring out costly machinery and establish large sugar mills and plantations, however, are in a far different category, and we have no doubt that, if these lands fall to the National Government, it will prove equally liberal to those pioneers of so great an industry as sugar, and which, when starting, is attended with such enormous expenses. The National Government, we hear, will sell off all the lands in Misiones, some 2,000 square leagues, when the question is settled. These lands will sell well, as they are the richest and most fertile on this Continent.

The following official returns of the Custom House receipts will much interest the market; we are much indebted to Sr Amadeo for sending us the table:—

We extract the following from a New York paper:—

"Dominion Trade with South American Ports.—The first steamer of the Canadian and Brazilian Direct Mail Steamship Company in the course of another fortnight or so will leave Montreal for Rio Janeiro. The Company, while organized for general transportation purposes in all parts of the world, is mainly formed to work a line of mail steamers between Canada and Brazil, touching at the West Indies, and to acquire the benefit of contracts with the Canadian and Brazilian Governments, respectively, for the carriage of their mails in consideration of annual subsidies from Canada of £10,000, and from Brazil of 100 Contos of reis [equal to about £10,000], making together about £20,000 per annum. In addition to these subsidies, this line will enjoy the privileges and exemptions accorded to mail steamers by the two Governments, including freedom from anchorage and light dues and priority in discharging cargo. The Company propose to employ four steamers, and until these are ready vessels will be chartered to meet the requirements of the trade. The steamers will be of 2,200 tons and will run every month between Canada [Montreal in summer and Halifax in winter] and Rio, calling at St. Thomas, Para, Maranham, Ceara, Pernambuco and Bahia."

We have been kindly favored by a Belgian merchant with the following Australian wool circular, which will interest our wool market:

Sydney, March 14th, 1881.

The announcement, conveyed by cable, that the public wool sale of the year had opened at a decline of 7½ per cent on the prices ruling at the close of the November series caused no surprise here. Ever increasing depression in Continental manufacturing centres, disasters at the Cape and disaffection in Ireland were all leading up to the inevitable contraction in values, which is now only too apparent. Compared with the prices ruling in London twelve months ago, wool must be quoted to-day full 25 o/o lower.

The effect of this depreciation on the local market has been the creation of something like a deadlock between buyers and sellers. Orders were pretty well executed, and the alternative of shipping at reduced rates of freight offered a convenient loophole for stubborn holders. Selection has been worse than ever, and it is scarcely too much to say that there is hardly a decent lot of wool in the market for sale, while as to stocks, 3,800 bales represent everything in first hands. In no former year at this date has the market been so thoroughly cleared of stock. From the fellmongers alone can any large lines be looked for, and as a very large proportion of scoured wool goes home on owner's account, brokers and buyers will have but a dull time of it during the winter, unless indeed the controversy between the Sydney Morning Herald and Messrs R Goldsborough & Co, of Melbourne, can be prolonged for their delectation.

In the circular of the Melbourne firm, under date of February 15th, certain facts and figures were adduced in support of a theory, somewhat ostentatiously paraded of late, that Melbourne was the great central depot for the Australian wool sales, and the natural outlet for the finest pastoral districts of Australia. That Melbourne is the natural outlet for the Western district and its splendid wools is self evident, but that she occupies a similar relation towards any other pastoral district is more than doubtful. By pushing her railways to the New South Wales border, by the erection of first class premises, by skilful and able management, and thorough knowledge of the business, Melbourne, through her leading woolbrokers, managed for a time, no doubt, to manipulate most of the large and best-cared-for clips of the Riverine district. It is only of late years that New South Wales has become alive to the value of her distant province, and now that its produce can be placed in the Sydney market in 14 or 15 hours, the advantages of proximity formerly in the possession of Melbourne have no further existence. In the matter of export, Melbourne has probably touched the limit of her power. Her figures for some years past have been very stationary, and exhibit none of the buoyancy nor progressive force of her rival. New South Wales, with her unlimited command of territory, is only beginning to put forth her wool-producing strength, and is much more likely than Victoria to make her capital the depot.

For the convenience of the trade, which may be supposed to know its own business best, the wool year has been made to commence on the 1st October and to terminate on the 30th Sept.

By the clearance of the Pericles, the export since the 1st Oct. is raised to 193,598 bales, being an increase of 27,983 bales over the figures at the corresponding date last season.

Sheepskins—

Since the fall in wool have had to submit to a decline, but are in limited quantity and in brisk demand up to 6¾d per lb. for the best.

For shipping parcels, market rather weaker; quotations nominally remaining at last month's level.

The price of this metal to-day is £84 p. ton.

Importantisimo, leer esto

La practica nos ha enseñado, como asi mismo las indicaciones de nuestra amistosa clientela, que no debe lanzarse a remate ninguna propiedad de cuya bondad de titulos no tenga la casa confianza y seguridad absolutas, por cuya razon hemos trabajado mas de dos meses hasta reunir toda la documentacion necesaria para presentar en venta esta zona importante de tierra, sin que los interesados tengan neces dad a pedir datos.

Hemos impreso un folleto, que contiene; 1º El plano de Santa Fe y su vecina Santiago del Estero. 2º El informe del Gobernador de la Provincia, declarando "ser propiedad de los Canepa el campo a venderse, acompañando copia legalizada de la ley que autorizo la venta y reconociendo es el derecho a su enag nacion. 3º Carta del Señor Obligado que ha recorrido los campos durante años) determinando su ubicacion, buena calidad, ventajas de su adquisicion, condiciones, etc. etc. 4º Planos del campo a venderse, con determinacion de lotes y la ubicacion de todas las importantes colonias con que se avecinan. 5º Nomina de los linderos y establecimientos importantes inmediatos. 6º Informe escrito del estudio hecho de todos los documentos y titulos por el acreditado escribano Sr. D. Victoriano Cabral, que los declara inmejorables: y finalmente todo lo pertinente al conocimiento de lo que debe adquirirse.

Este folleto, ass como las entradas para el lunch, se entregaran en nuestra casa a las personas que se dignen venir a solicitarlo.

Pormenores

Estos campos distan solo 5 leguas de las colonias Sunchales y Espin [suizo] y 7 o 10 de las estancias de Escalada, Ramayon, Coronel Obligado y hermano, Dr Pedro Palacios, Banc de Londres, Coronel Lacueva, Coronel Jabson. Lindan a mas con los Srs W Paste y Cs, Dr Lawsen, Meyer, Ozeiza, Duchiwitz, Altgelt, Napp, Loisseau, Bonorme, Newton, Mulhall y otros, que adquieren en la misma forma hacen diez años.

La traza del ferro carril de Santa Fe a Santiago, cruza estos campos y se radicara una o dos estaciones en ellas.

Con la base fijada, no se habran puesto en venta campos mas baratos y si se habran adquirido jamas mejores como calidad, pues el Sr Coronel Obligado dice en su informe que son SUPERIORES a los del Sud de Cordoba y a los del Departamento del Rosario.

Hay campo linderos, que se han vendido (y mostraremos el certificado) a 3600 $fts. la legua.

En la colonia Espin, donde existen mas de 150 familias fundada por el Sr Benitez, se venden las concesiones a 206 $fts de solo 20 cuadras, luego la legua ha producido ya mil onzas de oro, en 80 concesiones.

Los campos estan mensurados judicialmente perfectamente amojonados con grandes postes de quebracho.

Hoy dia, la casa bancaria de los Srs Murrieta en Londres, esta recibiendo los campos del Chaco, del Gobierno de Santa Fe, en pago del empresito a razon de 1600 $f. por legua, y estos son superiores y mas cerca de la capital.

Para terminar: la familia Canepa, es propietaria en el Rosario y esto redobla la garantia.

Por informes, folletos, planos etc, a nuestra casa San Martin 51. x106 j6

STATE OF IRELAND.

THE LAND BILL

[Dublin, April 28th

The Times correspondent gives the following:—

The new Land Bill is likely to be for many a day a subject of engrossing interest and of the deepest concern to the classes having property in land. They have scarcely recovered yet from the shock which the first statement of its scope and purpose gave them, and many are still bewildered as they look at its complex mechanism. But others are examining its provisions with a keener scrutiny, and as they dissect its provisions and compare them with the existing laws and the principles hitherto recognized as the basis of legal rights, they view it with more alarm as a revolutionary measure. The most sagacious critics who have large experience in the management of landed property are of opinion that, although fixity of tenure is not expressly or directly given, it is substantially provided, eviction being so beset with technical difficulties and penalties that it will be practically impossible, and the landlord, if the Bill passes in its present form, will be in future at the mercy of the tenant. The whole action of the measure will hinge upon the rent question, and it will be in the power of the Land Commission to adjust this finally and irrevocably, since there is to be no appeal from its decision, in such a way as to transfer millions of property at one stroke from the hands of the present owners to those of the tenants. If the compensation for disturbance, which is measured by three scales of seven years, five years, and three years, be estimated at an average of four years, the whole rental of Ireland being taken at £20,000,000, the value of the interest thus carved by Act of Parliament out of the property of the landlords would be equal to £80,000,000. Assuming that the rents are now at their full commercial value, it would be in the power of the Court to make an immediate reduction in the rents of the tenants at any time equivalent to that sum. This is estimating roughly the whole rental of Ireland. Mr Parnell, however, estimates the whole rental of agriculture holdings at £17,000,000. Taking an average of four years' rental as compensation for disturbance, the loss on this item alone, at Mr Parnell's estimate, would be £68,000,000, or, at 5 p cent, a permanent reduction on the rental of £3,400,000 a year. It may be much more, because four years is probably too low an average for the compensation for disturbance, having regard to the immense number of small holdings, in which the compensation would be seven years' rent. There are estates in the west, such as Lord Dillon's, on which there is scarcely one of hundreds of tenants paying more than £15 a year. These would be entitled to the seven years' scale of compensation, besides the value of their improvements, which would be altogether a matter of evidence, and every one acquainted with the County Courts knows how tremendous is the swearing power of the peasantry. There can be little doubt that the tenants will at once avail themselves of the right to go to the Court and claim a reduction of rent, as they have nothing to lose by the proceeding, but may take their chance of gaining, while the landlords would be visited with heavy penalties if they do not succeed or submit. The effect of this serious depreciation of property will tell against the interests of mortgagees, and insurance companies who have made large advances upon the security of land will suffer by the reduction. When the Land Bill of 1870 passed, it was calculated by one of its most active supporters, who nevertheless thought it had not gone far enough, that the effect of it was to transfer property to the value of 40 millions sterling into the pockets of the tenant farmers. If Mr. Parnell's estimate of what the land agitation has despoiled them of be added, it must be evident that there will be little wool left on the fleece after the shearing process of the new Bill. It is anticipated that there will be an overwhelming flood of Litigation in the Land Courts, and it will be very hard for the Appellate Commission, however strong its constitution, to bear the strain which will be put upon it. This Commission will, to a great extent, have the fate of both parties in its hands, and great anxiety is felt as to its composition. The fact that the same Court which is to purchase estates for apportionment among occupying proprietors, is also to be the Court to fix the value of the land is a grievance of which the landlord classes complain. The Commissioners, they say, will first reduce the rent, taking into account all the elements they are empowered to consider, and will then buy on their own terms. And for what, they ask, is all this injustice and injury to be inflicted on the landlords? They stand acquitted on the charges brought against them, and yet the property is to be taken from them, and those who have been the most considerate and generous in the treatment of their tenantry will be among the greatest sufferers. As regards the peasant proprietary to be created, it is observed that after the Government advances shall have been paid off there will be no restriction as to subdivision, and the evils which now arise from this cause will be increased and perpetuated. The plausible air and look of impartiality and fairness in some of the Bill are declared to be utterly delusive. An example of this deceptive character is pointed to in the very front of the Bill. In the first part relating to free sale, in sub-section 5 of the first clause, it is stated that among the reasonable objections to a tenant which a landlord is entitled to make is the 'bad character of the purchaser.' If a landlord was so indiscreet as to avail himself of this right, which looks so equitable in print, he would be likely to fall into the trap of an action for libel, with the prospect of being heavily mulcted in damages if he failed by legal proof to convince a jury of the truth of the charge, though the moral evidence might be conclusive. Cases have actually occurred in which agents have refused to recognise a tenant because he was believed to have committed even the crime of murder; but the reason was not disclosed in consideration of personal consequences, which might not be limited to damages in a civil action. The clauses which relate to the intervention of the Court and regulate the adjustment of rent and the penalties for disturbances are declared to be one-sided and unjust. While the tenant can appeal to the power of the Court, the landlord is practically debarred from doing so, and is placed in the unpleasant predicament of being liable to pay compensation. The Court is directed first to consider what is the fair commercial or marketable rent, and then to proceed to fine it down by taking into consideration various elements, some of them imported for the first time, the effect of which may be to obliterate altogether the landlord's interest. For example, the Ulster custom has hitherto been regarded as matter pertectly distinct from the rent, and it was so dealt with by landlords and tenants. The tenant's interest went from hand to hand as separate property. Sums have been frequently given far greater than the fee simple of the estate for such tenant-right. In the county Donegal as much as 50 years' purchase has been given by men famishing for land. If this interest is to be taken into account in measuring the rent, what interest will remain for the landlord? With free sale conceded by the Act it is impossible to limit the value which may be set upon the tenant-right in the scramble among hungry men for the morsel of land which may be offered for sale. The Court in estimating the rent may also take into account the amount of compensation to which the landlord would be liable for capricious eviction, and this provision is condemned as one which infringes every sound principle and would operate most unjustly against the landlords. It assumes as a real and fixed capital a sum which is only contingent upon the landlord doing certain things which he may never do, and it ignores the limitations of this penalty in the Land Act of 1870, for under that Act the conduct of the tenant can be taken into account, and cases have occurred in which the courts have decided that the tenant by his misconduct had disentitled himself to any compensation for disturbance. The mandatory powers given to the court to take into account also, in estimating the judicial rent, what a tenant has paid will work great injustice. An example may be given. A landlord, having an estate in the county of Kilkenny, had a tenant who wished to sell his interest and allowed him to do so at five years' purchase. That was two years ago, when prices of produce were higher than they now are. The new tenant has now applied for an abatement of the rent. He will be entitled now to go to the court, and the price which he was allowed by favour of the landlord to pay for the interest will be considered as an element against the landlord's right to his rent. Ten years' purchase would be over half the value of the fee-simple, and the landlord may find as the result of the appeal to the court that his rental is reduced one half. The fact that the landlord cannot appeal to the court unless indirectly, as already allowed, is felt to be a great hardship, and the advantage which the tenant possesses as regards the fixing of a fair rent is denied to him. Unless he can hit off exactly the sum which the court will consider a fair rent he is to be mulcted with a penalty of ten times the difference between what he claims and what the court awards, although it may appear that the tenant should pay more than he had been paying. The unlimited right to compensation for disturbance will operate as an insuperable bar to the removal of a tenant. For example, a tenant who pays now £800 a year, and has not made any improvement or expended anything upon the farm would be entitled to £2400 if he were removed from any cause. This is felt to be a great grievance and injustice. That this provision will amount in many cases to an absolute prohibition to remove a tenant may be inferred from the fact that there are tenants in Ireland paying as much as £15,000 a year. These are some of the blots upon the face of the Bill which have been already struck by the hands of critics on the part of the landlord class. But in proportion as they regard it with disfavour as an act of spoliation, it is viewed with more evident satisfaction by the agitators and those who sympathize with the tenants. They are beginning to speak out warmly in commendation of it and admiration of the genius and liberality of the Premier who proposed it. The secession of the Duke of Argyll from the Cabinet on account of the Bill has only added to its popularity among the tenants. They believe it must be a great boon to them when he objects to its project.

The Original and only Reparative Composed of these three Cereals.

MALTINE is a highly concentrated extract of malted Barley, malted Wheat, and malted Oats, containing, undiminished and unimpaired, all the nutritious principles that can be extracted from these cereals. By the most carefully conducted scientific process we are enabled to offer a perfect article, possessing five to ten times the beneficial and nutritive merit of any alcoholic or fermented Extract of Malt.

"WHEAT and OATS are especially rich in muscular and fat-producing elements."—Liebig.

MALTINE will increase both weight and flesh in most persons of thin habit.

MALTINE is particularly recommended for delicate Females and for weak and debilitated Children and Infants.

For Deficient Lactation, and for Mothers whilst Nursing, MALTINE is especially recommended.

MALTINE is the most important combination for use in Constipation.

MALTINE is entirely free from all products of Fermentation, such as Alcohol and Carbonic Acid Gas.

MALTINE is very palatable and pleasant, and will be readily taken by the youngest child.

The Compounds of Maltine

Can undoubtedly be used with greater success than any other remedy now known in diseases of General and Nervous Debility, Indigestion, Imperfect Nutrition, and Deficient Lactation; Cholera Infantum and Wasting Diseases of Children and Adults; Convalescence from Fevers, and whenever it is necessary to increase the vital forces and build up the system.

For Consumption and Wasting Diseases

MALTINE with Cod Liver Oil—The most perfect emulsion and most agreeable and effective mode of administering this nauseous but valuable Oil yet discovered.

MALTINE with Hypophosphites.—This preparation is specially indicated in Consumption, Rickets, and deficient Ossification.

MALTINE VERBINE.—A most palatable and efficacious remedy and substitute for Cod Liver Oil in the treatment of Consumption and Wasting Diseases; also the most perfect remedy yet produced in Chronic Pulmonary Affections, Coughs and Colds.
